

VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with Cultural Development Corporation (CuDC).

You don't have to be an artist, builder or banker to contribute to CuDC. We offer a wide range of mutually-rewarding volunteer opportunities, good for us - good for you, too! Special events support, clerical support and gallery sitting/ushering are just a few of the many possibilities that can be tailored to your time and talent. You'll broaden your circle of interesting friends and enjoy the excitement of becoming one of Washington's arts insiders.

Please fill out the form below to help us match you appropriately with CuDC projects. Please return the completed form via email to josh@culturaldc.org or fax to 202.315.1303.

FLASHPOINT

Located at 916 G Street, NW, Flashpoint is an arts incubator – home to a gallery, the Coors Dance Studio and the 75-seat Mead Theatre Lab. In addition, seven resident arts organizations participate in an intensive incubator program and house their offices at Flashpoint. With nightly performances in the Mead Theatre Lab and monthly openings in the gallery, Flashpoint offers a broad range of volunteer opportunities.

A veritable epicenter of talented artists and performing arts groups, Source, located at 1835 14th Street, NW, seeks to stimulate and engage performing arts audiences. Since Source plays host to a variety of different artists and performing arts groups, audiences have the opportunity to see an array of new and exciting performances. For artists and performing arts groups, Source is a catalyst that inspires cross-disciplinary dialogue, sparks creativity and propels them to reach the next level of their careers.
